

2015 PETITE SIRAH

Blueberry, blueberry, and more blueberry on the nose with hints of cinnamon and cedar in the background. Lush and sweet with layers of black fruits that wrap around the tongue. "Blueberry motor oil that will stain your soul."

2015 CHARDONNAY

All of the grapes in the 2015 Chardonnay came from two vineyards located in the Livermore Valley of California's Central Coast.

2015 PINOT NOIR

Bright cherry cola aromatics with an almost rustic charm. There are also some notes of raspberries and pipe tobacco. The flavors are all red fruits. Cherries of course, but pomegranates, strawberries, cranberries, and rhubarb pie are also present.

2014 MERLOT

Virtually all of the Merlot grapes in this wine come from the Livermore Valley. The addition of Cabernet and Syrah brings a bit of blackberry and raspberry to the mix.

2014 CABERNET SAUVIGNON

From Livermore Valley to Paso Robles, I get to source some incredible fruit for this blend. And a blend it is. I'm not shy about adding depth and layers of flavors with Merlot or even a bit of Syrah.
